

CARGO DAMAGE LIABILITY INSURANCE CERTIFICATION QUESTION

- 1. Does your Cargo Insurance Policy contain "Endorsement for Motor Common Carrier Policies of Insurance for Cargo Liability Under Section 215, Interstate Commerce Act"? [] Yes [] No
- 2. Does your Cargo Insurance Policy specify specific property allowed to be transported? [] Yes [] No
- 3. Would lumber, aluminum and other metals (excluding precious metals) be covered? [] Yes [] No
- 4. Does your cargo insurance policy provide coverage in the event cargo gets wet while in your possession? [] Yes [] No
- 5. Does your cargo insurance policy provide coverage in the event the cargo is damaged while in your possession from incidents not involving a collision with another vehicle? For instance: sudden stops that cause load shifts, sharp turns that result in cargo falling from the trailer, water damage due to holes in tarps or trailer floors, or single vehicle incidents like jackknives and rollovers? [] Yes [] No
- 6. Is your cargo insurance policy a named vehicle policy? [] Yes [] No
- 7. Is your cargo insurance policy "Broad Form Coverage" (also known as Special Form or All-Risk Coverage) ? [] Yes [] No

Comments:

Truckmen Corporation appreciates you taking the time to answer our concerns. Thank You!

Signed: _____

Printed Name: _____

Title: _____

Date: _____